October, 2004 “Turnings”

Attendance: 38 members were in attendance at our September meeting.

Nominating Committee: Ken D’Ambrosio stated that we need to select a nominating committee at our October meeting. Ken also stated that his new business is growing so well that he will not be a nominee for President for the up-coming year.

Collaborative Project: Ken stated that we should start thinking about a collaborative project for the 2006 AAW Symposium.

Club Video Camera: Steve Imms has purchased a video camera for the club for just over $300.00.

Treasurer’s Report: Bob Hopkins reported a balance of $1682.10. The balance is down because of his purchase of 36 (a case) of Professional Woodworker Sanding kits. The balance will be replenished as the members pay for their kits.

Ken D’Ambrosio gave Wayne Collins several $15.00 gift certificates from Craft Supply for his woodturning group.

Pen-turning on Thursday, November 11th for veterans. More later in the newsletter.

New Business: Emilio Iannuccillo has secured Lyle Jamieson to demonstrate on November 6th. A large notice on this later in the newsletter. Other clubs will be notified.

Motion: A motion was made and passed that copies of the newsletter for snail mail recipients be all in black and white. Also to try to determine if snail mail recipients could get the newsletter sent by e-mail to a neighbor or friend in order to save on postage.

Demonstration of Coring with a Bowl Saver by Angelo Iafrate

Angelo Iafrate demonstrated how to core out a smaller bowl from a larger blank in order to get more useful turnings and less waste. This was not a delicate operation. Angelo deftly pushed the slightly curved cutting tool into the blank, but it was obvious that was not an easy task. The smaller bowl blank finally “popped” out.
