Minutes of the March 17, 2011 meeting

New person in attendance: Craig Verrastro from Coventry

Old Business

No Treasury report this meeting

Dues –Approx. 80-90 people have paid for 2011. Dues for this year and are $25 for members and $30 for members who get newsletter mailed to them.

Shows -Mike Murray is looking into our club having a table at the Pawtucket Arts Festival: <http://pawtucketartsfestival.org/>

Wayne Collins is looking into the club having exposure at the JMW School in Pawtucket. He also said that we need to look into a major demonstrator for our own club

New Business

Gene Amaral has been in contact with the Cranston Public Library about letting club members put their items in a display case there. (here are some pictures of the library cases)

Dave Eaton invited Ocean Woodturner members to CNEW's upcoming club field trips:

May 14th: <http://oldschwambmill.org/main.html> will actually get to watch how this is done. The Schwamb mill still makes elliptical woodturnings for mirror frames, etc.

April 16th: <http://burlsource.com/> club discounts and cookout.

He also will get us the date of his club's Jimmy Clewes demonstration this summer.

Show and Tell

George Nazareth with a segmented bowl of Dark Cherry and Purple Heart. 1

The base is a solid piece of dark Cherry as are the two thin pieces of Purple Heart, but all the other layers are made in 12 segments.

Paul Tavares - used scraps off maple, blood wood, and some unknown brown wood .

Bill Smith with a set of nested bowls

Chris horn made this wood serving tray?

Demonstration

Dave Eaton went through the steps involved in making a bowl from a board. A step by step Power Point (?) set of charts, including spreadsheets of kerf widths and cut angles were shown. A chart was also shown that showed other shapes (not just an ice cream cone shape) that could be made. For more information contact Dave Eaton at dave@eaton9999.com Here are some photos from the demonstraton

Wood Raffle

Mike Murray donated the pegboard items and the faceplate items. Bill Smith donated the beechwood, and Charlie Hockhousen donated a box of misc wood.
