NEW BUSINESS:

Craig brought in the first batch of Club shirts that were ordered and distributed. The second batch should be available for the next meeting.

Wayne is working on trying to acquire some of the wood from the Lincoln Park roller coaster that is being demolished in Dartmouth MA.

Wayne and Gene brought up the possibility of having Jim Duxbury come to demonstrate Kaleidoscopes at the October 18 meeting. Cost for the demo would be $250 which, after some discussion, was approved by the membership. Check out www.duxterity.com and <http://www.resp-o-rator.com/ec/> are his web sites display his products and turnings.

Coco Bolo wood - Charlie Hockenson was not at this meeting to answer questions were raised about the Coco Bolo logs that he had said might be available. {After the meeting it developed that the seller wanted $5/pound for the logs whose weights were 100 + pounds}

Geroge Lough said that he will try to make another trip to Roger Williams Park to get some of the Oak and spaltd Maple wood that is available.

Show and Tell

Ed Keenan - open segmented bowl – Maple, Walnut, and Bloodwood

Lorraine Hilton – showed several French rolling pins from laminated woods

Gene Amaral showed a wooden vase that he made

Gene asked for suggestions on how to best use this Cherry burl.

Some of the Cherry burl suggestions ranged from being careful of hidden voids to some being willing to take it off his hands and relieve him of the problem

Craig Verrastro - Cherry burl finished w/4 coats Salad Bowl finish

A closer view of Ed Keenan's - open segmented bowl – Maple, Walnut, and Bloodwood

Chris Horn showed his latest creation

John Chakuroff brought in the RI Mace which has several coats of finish and needs more

Paul Tavares – segmented bowl – Walnut, Maple, Bloodwood and a small segmented box with a segmented ring wall

Demonstration

Gene Amaral began his demonstration with a series of jokes and then discussed the features of the room air filter that he built using plans from his friend Ray Lanahan. Parts cost him about $20 “out of pocket”, including two sets of 1”x12”x24” furnace filters. He picked up a free used blower assembly. The air filter assembly is designed to hang from the ceiling.
